Chaplaincy Walkers in Nettersheim

On Saturday 16 March the Chaplaincy Walkers are heading for the Eifel to the "Römerkanal" – the marvellous feat the Romans accomplished, bringing water from the Eifel all the way to thirsty Cologne. Nettersheim is where it all starts and this is where we will walk. Our meeting place is Rosenthalstraße 1, 53947 Nettersheim. Please be there at 11am. The walk is just over 15 km, with some moderate climbing, slightly off the beaten track. Afterwards we can enjoy coffee and cake at the cosy Café zur Römerquelle.

Singing group in Bonn

The next informal sing-along will be on Wednesday 27 March. We meet in the basement at St. Paulus church at 8pm. All are welcome.

Collect

Almighty Father,
whose Son was revealed in majesty
before he suffered death upon the cross:
give us grace to perceive his glory,
that we may be strengthened to suffer with him
and be changed into his likeness,
from glory to glory;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Old Testament reading – Exodus 34.29-35 The Shining Face of Moses

²⁹Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. ³⁰When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. ³¹But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. ³²Afterwards all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. ³³When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; ³⁴but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, ³⁵the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Psalm 99

The Lord is king: let the peoples tremble;
he is enthroned above the cherubim: let the earth shake.

The Lord is great in Zion
and high above all peoples.

Let them praise your name, which is great and awesome;
the Lord our God is holy.

Mighty king, who loves justice,
you have established equity;
you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.

Exalt the Lord our God;
bow down before his footstool, for he is holy.

Moses and Aaron among his priests and Samuel among those who call upon his name;
they called upon the Lord and he answered them.

He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud;
they kept his testimonies and the law that he gave them.

You answered them, O Lord our God;
you were a God who forgave them
and pardoned them for their offences.

Exalt the Lord our God
and worship him upon his holy hill, for the Lord our God is holy.

New Testament reading – 2 Corinthians 3.12-4.2

Treasure in Clay Jars

¹²Since we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, ¹³not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. ¹⁵Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; ¹⁶but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

¹Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. ²We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practise cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

Gospel reading – Luke 9.28-36

The Transfiguration

²⁸Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. ³⁰Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. ³¹They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ³²Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. ³³Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah' — not knowing what he said. ³⁴While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. ³⁵Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' ³⁶When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Post Communion prayer

Holy God,
we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ:
may we who are partakers at his table
reflect his life in word and deed,
that all the world may know his power to change and save.
This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
